Instructions to Participants

1. Instruction for registration

Registration is compulsory for all the participants. We request all the paper contributors to register before 24 February to avoid the rush on the conference date. However, spot registration is available with a different payment slab. Kindly, see the registration and payment details at the conference website. The registration entitles you to conference kit, food coupons and certificates. We sincerely request you to cooperate with the facilitation desk in completing the registration process.

2. Instruction for receiving the conference kit

We would like to inform our valued delegates that there will be a facilitation desk at the venue with conference executives. You can show the proof of payment or make spot payment to complete the registration process and collect your conference kit.

3. Instructions for lunch and breakfast

The organizers would like to request the participants, delegates, guests and accompanying persons to collect the food coupons from the facilitation desk. You may collect the coupons along with the conference kit during the time of registration. Kindly note that the snacks, breakfast and lunch would be available only for the registered participants and special invitees. All persons accompanying the participants need to inform the organisers and collect their coupon (on payment) in advance. The delegates please note that they have to arrange for the dinner on their own. Your kind cooperation in this regard is inevitable.

4. Instruction for receiving the certificates

Certificates in various categories would be available only to the registered participants. It is mandatory for all presenters (including the co-authors of a paper) to register in order to receive the certificate. Your certificates would be prepared only after you have made the presentation. Please visit the facilitation desk after an hour or two to collect your certificate.

5. Instructions for receiving awards

The persons selected for the award need to be physically present on the occasion. In case it is not possible for the awardee to be physically present s/he should nominate or authorize somebody (in writing) to receive the award on his/her behalf. The persons shortlisted for the award should report at least half an hour before the distribution of the award. There will a facilitation desk to assist the awardees.
